COURSE DESCRIPTION

Max R. Gaspar, MD, was an attending surgeon at the Los Angeles County Hospital for over fifty years, and served as a Senior Vascular Attending at LAC+USC for twenty-five years. His teaching and scholarly accomplishments have had a lasting impact on vascular surgery in Southern California. This annual symposium addresses topics of interest to physicians and surgeons who care for the patient with vascular disease. The topic of the 2020 Max R. Gaspar, MD Symposium is “Current Management and Treatment Strategies for Venous Disease.”

A distinguished faculty is assembled for the symposium, designed to update the attendee on innovation and new strategies. Sixteen didactic and video lectures will be given to encompass the topics. This virtual conference puts aside designated time for question and answer sessions following each presentation. Attendees can submit questions that program faculty presenters may review and share their response. This year we are delighted to have Dr. Cynthia Shortell, from Duke University School of Medicine, as our Gaspar Visiting Professor. Dr. Shortell will give her symposium address on September 10.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Outline new guidelines in the treatment of venous thromboembolism.
- Discuss current indicators for inferior vena cava filters.
- Assess treatment paradigms in the management of varicose veins.

TARGET AUDIENCE

This course is intended for all levels of healthcare professionals with interest in the care of the vascular patient. Audience includes practicing physicians, surgical trainees, medical students, nurses, physicians' assistants and other allied healthcare providers.
