Before the Ceremony

Wear your academic regalia with the tassel of your cap over the right temple until you are instructed during the ceremony to move it to the left.

MPH and MS students – Please wear your hood prior to the start of the procession.

PhD and DNAP students – You WILL BE hooded during the ceremony. Your hood should be neatly folded over your left forearm, and the top hook and eye of your robe unfastened.

Please be prepared to wear comfortable clothing and shoes. All Graduates will be required to walk up and down many steps during check-in and procession to the Galen floor.

During the Ceremony

**The cap should be worn at all times.*

1. After the speeches, the Dean will ask the graduates to rise.
2. Students will proceed to the platform on either to the left or the right side of the stage – commencement staff will provide directions during the ceremony.
3. Each graduate hand their name card to the commencement staff on stage. Once your name is called, you will walk across the stage to receive a diploma cover and shake hands with the Dean or Vice Dean and take your photo.
4. Once completed, you will leave the platform by walking down the ramp located at the center of the stage and back to your seat.

End of the ceremony

After the Benediction, the ceremony will come to a close. As the recessional begins, the faculty on the stage will leave first. When directed, each row of graduates will join the recessional – commencement staff will provide directions.

The entire recessional line will continue without stopping until you have exited the Galen Center on the South Side entrance.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FAMILY AND GUESTS

General Guests

Doors will open at 8:00 a.m. for all guests at the north and south side entrance of the Galen Center on Figueroa Street.

Tickets are not required. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis; guest cannot sit in roped off areas and cannot reserve seats.

All guests attending the commencement ceremony at The Galen Center will be required to go through metal detectors upon entrance of the facility.

COVID Safety Protocols

All attendees must conduct a self-health screening prior to attending. If you have any symptoms or are currently in isolation/quarantine period due to a recent infection or exposure, you may not attend.

Currently there are no restrictions or limitations for visitors coming to campus.

All COVID policies are subject to change.

While masks are not required for this event, we ask that attendees, vaccinated or unvaccinated, consider wearing them for their own protection and the protection of others when not actively consuming food or beverage.

Please note that protocols are subject to change. Information on protocol updates will be communicated to guests by email or other appropriate mechanism.

Aisle Ways

For the safety and enjoyment of all in attendance, guests are expected to keep all aisles clear and remain seated in the guest seating area. Guests who refuse to keep these areas clear may be subject to ejection from the arena.

Medical Emergency

In the event of a medical emergency during the ceremony, guests should contact the nearest usher or security guard for assistance.

Photography

We have arranged for Grad Images to take photos of each graduate (when receiving “diploma”/ shaking hands with the Dean). Due to safety precautions guests WILL NOT be permitted on the arena floor, stage, or in the aisles for photography or videotaping.

End of the Ceremony

During the recessional, we ask that guest remain in their seats until all graduates have exited the arena.
